

Please keep K-Love on. It is such an inspiration and caring station. And, in this day and age we all need someone we can relate to, besides the LORD! I'm so at peace with myself listening to K-Love. The station is a very care-giving. They have a prayer room, where we can leave our special prayers, to have others pray. Sorry this was to be brief comment, but I got carried away.